Selected artists will be expected to provide a listing of the works and their dimensions with the artist's name at the head of the list. Please do not list prices for the works, since the artwork cannot be sold at the library. If desired, a pricing range may be provided as part of your submission for informational purposes only, and we will provide contact information if inquiries are received.

The Stephen Crohn Gallery occupies two distinct spaces in the Saugerties Public Library, the upstairs hall in front of the elevator and the downstairs hall from the elevator corridor to the Community Room. The Gallery space is not large and cannot accommodate large works of art.
